

Fall Mushroom Workshop

Saturday September 29th, 2018 10:00AM-12:00PM

Location: Colonial Point/Cheboiganing Nature Preserve, Brutus, MI 49716

Meet at trailhead at Lathers Rd - access off of Brutus Rd., on the west side of Burt Lake.

Mycologist, Marilyn Smith will take us on a fascinating and informative journey into the secret lives of fall mushrooms. Following an introduction to varieties of mushrooms found in our neck of the woods, we will journey out to find and identify the various varieties.

Attendees may bring along a basket and small knife for collecting. We will hunt light rain or shine, so please dress appropriately.

**Please note, no restrooms are available on site, but public restrooms are available nearby at the Maple Bay boat launch.*

Cost is $20 per person.
